MTA announces Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC as the newest Leadership Circle Member

DELTA TOWNSHIP—Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC, of Okemos, Michigan has decided to develop an even more engaged relationship with townships by moving up to the Leadership Circle in the Michigan Townships Association's (MTA) Allied Service Provider program. As part of the Leadership Circle, the $5,000 investment by the Fahey Schultz Firm will be used to improve the overall effectiveness of township government through more productive business practices, better education, and enhanced communications.

“On behalf of MTA and Michigan townships, I am happy to welcome Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC to our Allied Service Provider program,” said Larry Merrill, MTA executive director. “As part of the program, the Fahey Schultz firm demonstrates its dedication to strengthening the relationship between our members and the business community.”

Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes, PLC is a firm of township attorneys dedicated to serving the legal needs of municipalities. Based in central Michigan, they represent more than 30 rural and urban townships statewide. Their specialists offer townships accessible, affordable expertise, based on more than 100 years of combined experience in township law.

MTA's Allied Service Provider program has three levels of participation: President's Round Table ($10,000), Leadership Circle ($5,000), and Keystone Club ($2,000). Although participation in the Allied Service Provider program does not constitute or imply MTA's endorsement of a company, or its products or services, those enrolled in the program are expected to maintain good business practices and operate in an ethical manner. The Michigan Townships Association is the exclusive legislative and public advocate for Michigan's 1,242 townships and is the foremost source of quality education and information for Michigan's elected and appointed township officials.
