

4151 Okemos Road
Okemos, MI 48864
Phone: (517) 381-0100
Fax: (517) 381-5051

For Immediate Release

January 14, 2011

Contact: Stephen Schultz

(517) 381-0100

sschultz@fsblawyers.com

New Attorney Joins Growing Okemos Law Firm

Okemos, MI. — Helen E. R Mills has joined the law firm of Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC in Okemos, MI.

Helen joined the firm as an Associate Attorney after receiving her law degree magna cum laude from Thomas M. Cooley Law School. Helen's practice focuses on municipal law, labor and employment law and general litigation. She is admitted to practice in all Michigan state and federal courts. Helen is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Federal Bar Association.

While in law school, Helen earned 11 Certificates of Merit—the highest honor for academic performance in a course— and graduated second in her class. In 2010, Helen was awarded one of the inaugural “book award” scholarships given by the Real Property Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan for excellence in advanced property law courses.

About Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC

Fahey Schultz Burzych Rhodes PLC has more than 100 years of combined experience in four core legal service areas. The Local Government group serves over 75 Michigan cities, villages, townships, counties, drain commissioners and libraries. The Corporate group forms and advises franchised businesses, including several of the fastest growing franchises in the state. The Public Utility group serves public utilities and energy companies, including two of Michigan's largest utilities. The Employment Law group assists private and public employers in labor relations and employment matters. More information about Fahey Schultz is available at www.fsblawyers.com.